Conversations From the TG Wire by Sweetwater Jack

SHOTGUNS WITH "SECOND SIGHT"?

Is a second sight bead, located half-way down the barrel rib on shotguns, SASS-Legal?

Some shotguns come from the factory with this second bead installed. The consensus of opinion on the T/G Wire is that if the bead is of "legal" materials, such as brass, ivory or steel, that it is legal and really does not present any advantage in the distances we shoot.
