The holiday season is now upon us and with that comes the 2nd annual Northwest Cowboy Action Shooters' Cowboy Christmas Celebration. Joining the Jefferson State Regulators, Merlin Marauders, and Table Rock Rangers will be the Hawkinsville Claim

Jumpers and Klamath Cowboys. Invitations went out last weeks, so if you have not received yours please let me know so I can get you the details. The event will be at the Gold Hill IOOF Hall on December 15th starting at 6pm. It will be a pot luck event and we will play steal-a-gift. Please limit your gift to a $15

max. The kids are encouraged to play as well. We will also get a visit from Father Christmas so be sure to show up with your Christmas List! If you have any questions please feel free to call me at 941-2959. We hope to see you there!

Until next time, happy reading!

Special Points of Interest:

- The Cowboy Christmas Celebration is December 15th! We hope to see you there!
- The new message board is up and running! You can get there from the main JSR page!

KNIGHT VISION

By Jed I. Knight
SASS #36423

If you were in the Southern Oregon area on October 27, 2007 you may have felt the earth shake as your family sat down for dinner. What you felt wasn't an actually earthquake though, rather it was the thunderous loads from Mongo's 10-gauge shotgun as he celebrated with 12 other cowboys at Klamath Fall's Black Powder Night Shoot.

On just a slightly lower seismic scale to Mongo's 90-grain loads were the bellowing loads used by none other than Ramblin' Dave. Those that know Dave and weren't there to see it might not believe that he could produce loads that recoiled like these did but I have photographic evidence (okay, so they're still photos and you can't really tell that they recoiled so dramatically – but trust me, I was there and it was fun(ny) to watch)! What I wish I had captured on film was the expression on Dave's face as he let off that first shot – there was definitely a moment of hesitation that said "am I going to pull this trigger again?"

The thunderous loads, bellowing flames and clouds of smoke whose effects were magnified as the sun set were just part of the fun and entertainment of this match. The Klamath Cowboys also provided a feast of BBQ steaks, beans and more to hungry cowboys that made the trip. And as with most Cowboy Action Shooting matches it provided the opportunity to mingle with our like-minded pards – always a highlight at any match.

The match results and photos can be found by selecting the link on the front page of the Jefferson State Regulators website. I'll be looking forward to shootin' this match again next year!

19 shooters showed up for JSR's October monthly match. Although I was unable to attend, I understand that several participated in JSR's 2nd Annual Costume Shoot. I was told that I was a "Safety Cowboy" was there (cowboy hard hat, bright yellow safety vest), a Gypsy, a Civil War Soldier and "Evil LeRoy" (I'd like to have seen that one!) – if anyone has photos from the match please send them to me and I will post them on the website. After the shoot the cowboys and cowgirls gathered in the Ashland Gun Club meeting room for a chili
